Sign painter retires

Colorful career ends

By SUSAN J. CLARK

Call Staff Writer

Sign painter Dick Burns, 1107 Lake St., is retiring after 48 years of painting everything from tire covers and trucks to theater posters and slickers.

Apprenticed in Piqua, Burns worked for the Schine Theaters here and in Watertown, N.Y., before opening his shop at 329½ N. Main St. in 1948.

He said his career began when he was 16 years old.

"Back then they had tires on the backs of cars, and I used to letter the covers," he explained. "It was also popular to have stuff painted on your rain slicker - the more the better. Painted locks on the pockets were all the go."

Following his apprenticeship, Burns painted advertisements for the Schine Theater in Piqua and was later transferred to New York where he designed displays for four theaters.

"This was during the depression, and I was making $60 a week - $20 more than the theater manager in Syracuse,"

Burns said.

While in New York, he says he met actors Charles Laughton and Roger Pryor, actress Ann Southern and dancer Sally Rand, who appeared at the theaters.

With photography as a hobby, Burns did retouching and corrective retouching on the side.

"SOME PEOPLE WANTED teeth added to their pictures or noses and ears made smaller. In some cases, I had to completely chip away the emulsion on the photographic paper," he said.

After 10 years in Watertown, Burns returned to Piqua and opened his Main Street sign painting shop, where he has been painting not only signs, but trucks and billboards. He also does the silk screen insignias for the Piqua Police cars.

"I do some decals for them about every month. They're always banging up car doors," he said.

Burns said he intends to close the shop as soon as he can. Post-retirement plans include taking care of his grandson who is three years old and also likes sign painting and painting his house. After all that is accomplished, he and his wife plan to travel.

"San Francisco is first on our list, followed by New Orleans. In all the years we lived in New York, we never saw New York city. So we plan to go there," Burns said. "I'd also like to spend some more time exploring the art museum in Chicago."

He says he probably will do some sign painting after retirement, but nothing steady.

"I want to get out of it before I start going downhill," Burns, 64, said.

Burns explained why no one is taking over his business.

"SIGN WRITING TAKES three to five years to learn before you can demand money for your work, and today young people need jobs where they can earn money right away," he said. "This time disadvantage worked to my advantage, though, during the depression because I didn't have anything else to do. You couldn't buy a job then."

Burns says he also would like to practice his organ more after retirement.

"Right now I'm known as Piqua's worst organist," he confided, "and I'd like to try to change my status."

NOTE: I forgot to look for Uncle Dick West until 1932 so next visit I must look for him on directories 1926 to 1931 and after. I'm sure he lived on Bakemeyer during some of those years. Also have to look for various names like Charles, Richard C., C.R. etc. For Budde, notice I found a "Buddie" not Budde in 1932, so next visit will have to check on his name too. He may be listed as Buddie in some earlier years where I didn't find him. You may not be too interested in all these directories, but I am looking for the Cunningham, Martlage and West names because I haven't gone through them before now. Mainly I concentrated on Burns and Teipen. On my 11 pages of Teipen names sent to both of you, you will see I put addresses on the computer, but didn't have any for Cunningham, Martlage or West, so will add these I found to the various names

Herman Martlage listed on Bakemeyer is a brother of Uncle Harry Martlage who married Lena Tepen. Before now, I wasn't aware he ever lived in the double at 131-133.

Uncle Dick and Aunt Betty West lived way south on Madison Avenue when they had the RFD and Box number. They also lived at 157 Bakemeyer at some time so that could have been in years between 1926 and 1931, which I have to check on my next visit. Later they left the Madison Avenue house and bought the double at 131-133 because Grandma Henrietta was losing it. They made it into a single home with a place for Grandma at the back of the house. She lived with them until she died.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;

thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

HENRY ANTHONY (TONY) TEIPEN 996

When Tony was fifteen, his parents Anthony & Henrietta Teipen purchased two farms in Jackson County in conjunction with Tony's older brother Joseph born in 1891, and his wife Theresa born 1893. Tony farmed the land which is now the Bajjalieh farm with his older relatives. In 1924 he married Polly Waskom who was a Jackson County native born in 1902.

After a temporary sojourn in Indianapolis, where Tony worked at the stockyard among farm animals, which he loved, he and Pollie returned to Jackson County and bought their own farm. Anyone was welcome at their home; they were kind and easygoing people. When relatives dropped by unexpectedly, Pollie would grab a chicken from the barn lot, dress it and have it in the pot for dinner in a few minutes. Tony and Pollie had three sons who grew up in Jackson County. Anthony (young Tony) was born in 1925, William born in 1931 and Richard born in 1939. As a hobby, Tony kept large, strong horses. He entered them many times in pulling contests, which he frequently won, appearing in news photos in Jackson County papers and as far away as the state capitol. Later however, Tony received a serious injury while unloading his team of horses in Madison, Indiana, at a pulling contest. Tony died in 1949 and Pollie served as matriarch to their sons, until her death in Jackson County in 1985. Together they rest in Russell Chapel Cemetery.

All three sons still work farm land purchased and handed down by their parents. They each married and have children and grandchildren, most all of them current residents of Jackson County. The three Teipen sons, especially young Tony, have been active with heavy usage of combines, harvesting thousands of acres of Jackson County crops. Richard and his family keep horses on their land and Richard took up pulling, following in his father's foot-steps. His team of mules have won contests and earned awards at the Indiana State Fair. William and his son also pull as a hobby, in this case, winning with horsepower of a different kind as they have taken the family interest even further with powerful tractor pulls. Recently, Tony's three sons and their families hosted special visiting farmers, four cousins from Lohne, Germany, who found it a treat to compare their conditions at home with Jackson County animals, soil, crops and farm implements.

INSPIRATION

Blind Typist Points The Way

By RON GINGER, Daily News Staff Writer

Rosalie Burns of Piqua has a strong conviction that every person has the right to prove himself—particularly when it comes to performance for one's employer.

Following an eight-week typing course plus some special training, the 21-year-old miss is working as a transcription typist for the Division of Aid for the Aged in the Ohio department of Public Welfare.

Her work since August has favorably impressed co-workers and drew this comment from H. Ross F. Kettering, subdivision manager:

"In the performance of her duties, she is exceptionally good in every phase of work, including neatness and accuracy. We're very satisfied with her work."

The compliment provides special satisfaction to Rosalie because she is blind.

generated high hopes among the bureau's staff workers.

Speaking from experience, she said:

"Many times the handicapped person can prove he is capable of holding a particular job, but is not hired because of the employer's doubt of mind. I hope what success I achieve here will bring more employment for the handicapped."

DESPITE HER HANDICAP, she has proved that the blind can work efficiently and well.

Rosalie uses a small tape recorder on which the case worker dictates material. Rosalie, in turn, types the information onto individual client records.

Many case workers, however, prefer to give Rosalie the case material verbally.

She is a student graduate of the Services for the Blind's rehabilitation program. Two of the staff members, Myron Bernstein, vocational rehabilitation counselor, and Paul DeSarro, employment counselor, aided her in getting the job.

Last summer the state initiated a two-year experimental project with the local Division of Services for the Blind office.

ALTHOUGH THE BUREAU has a twofold purpose—to rehabilitate the blind person to the highest level of his potential and to place him in his most qualified trade or vocation—the emphasis has been on the latter.

Thus far, Rosalie is the bureau's star pupil. Her success in achieving self-sufficiency is a

State DeMolay Master Councilor Visits Here

Seymour Chapter, Order of De-Molay, was honored at its semi-monthly meeting Wednesday night at the Masonic Temple
when Robert Craig, of Columbus,
who was elected master councilor
of the Indiana State Council, Order of DeMolay, at the annual state conclave at Muncie last week end, paid a surprise visit to the chapter.

State Master Councilor Craig
was accompanied by James Butler, master councilor of the York-rite Chapter of Columbus. Each spoke briefly at the chapter meeting, at which Don R. Smith, master councilor, presided. The new state head said he is planning to visit all the chapters in the state during the coming year and his visit here was his first.
He appointed Donald P. Woolls, scribe of the Seymour Chapter, to a committee to assist in rewriting
the council's state constitution.

Plans for an anniversary banquet and conferring of both degrees on a "Victory Class" here
on Wednesday night, November 30, were discussed. It was announced the chapter will attend the morning worship services of the Central Christian Church on Sunday morning, November 20,
in observance of an obligatory day.

He said he is resigning because
he feels the GOP should have

Kemper, a Chicago insurance

August. He stayed on when his proposal was turned down by the committee. But he served notice
then that he would quit auto-

fell below the $125,000 mark.

Today he said he has signed a $35,000 check, requested by Guy

Kemper said that leaves the GOP
with only $90,000.

Henry "Tony" Teipen Succumbs Unexpectedly

Henry A. "Tony" Teipen, 45, well-known farmer residing on Seymour R3, four miles southwest of Dudleytown, died unexpectedly at his home early this morning, with death attributed to cerebral hemorrhage. Ill only one hour,
Mr. Teipen had been in good health, shucking corn all day Wednesday, and his death came as a shock to relatives and friends who mourn his passing.

A resident of this county for over 30 years, Mr. Teipen had won prominence for his prowess in horse pulling contests. He always had an entry in the county fair horse pulling contest, and was on hand for similar events throughout the county.

Born November 27, 1903, in Indianapolis, the son of Henry A.
and Henrietta Rackers Teipen, both of whom preceded him in death, he was married in this county on August 8, 1924, to Pollie Waskom, who survives.

Other survivors include three children, Tony Teipen, Jr., William Teipen and Richard Teipen, all at home; two brothers, Joseph Teipen and Henry Teipen, both of Indianapolis; and five sisters, Mrs.
Rose McCullough, Mrs. Lena Sentney, Mrs. Margaret Cunningham, and Mrs. Elizabeth West, all of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Maymie Burns, of Piqua, Ohio.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the Tampico Baptist

Indianapolis, Nov. 3—(AP)— Principal Emory W. Theiss of Jeffersonville High School today asked for another chance to talk to the association board of control about the school's suspension.

Commissioner L. V. Phillips
relayed the request to R. B. Miller of Clark High School of Hammond, the board president. Miller said the board would be willing to discuss the case with Jeffersonville officials "only after students cease their demonstrations and return to class."

About half of the school's 2,000 pupils were on strike today because of the penalty and consequent cancellation of its basketball schedule.

Miller made it clear that no rehearing was scheduled and "none is contemplated." He said, however, that part of the board's decision was to give Jeffersonville a chance to "put its athletic house in order" and the board wished to help.

The intimation was that the board was willing to give advice on reorganizing the Jeffersonville athletic system, which it had accused Coach Ed Denton of "taking over," but was not likely to reconsider its decision.

when Robert Craig, of Columbus,
who was elected master councilor
of the Indiana State Council,

week end, paid a surprise visit to
the chapter.

State Master Councilor Craig

Chicago, Nov. 3—(P)—James S.
Kemper quit today as treasurer of the Republican National Committee because the GOP's reserve funds have dwindled from $832,000 in 1946 to only $80,000.

He said he is resigning because
he feels the GOP should have collected more money or cut expenses and because he wants to get rid of a political policy "handicap" so he can help elect a Republican Congress in 1950 and a Republican President in 1952.

Kemper, a Chicago insurance
executive, offered to quit last August. He stayed on when his proposal was turned down by the committee. But he served notice
then that he would quit automatically if the GOP cash box
fell below the $125,000 mark.

Today he said he has signed a $35,000 check, requested by Guy
G. Gabrielson, national GOP chairman for operating expenses.
Kemper said that leaves the GOP
with only $80,000.

His October 28 letter to Gabrielson, made public by Kemper today, said the GOP leadership has not collected the new funds

Cause Of Dairy Fire

CHARLES A. TEIPEN

LAWRENCE N. TEIPEN

CLARENCE TEIPEN

Reprint of newspaper article of 6/19/1943: Staff Sergeant Charles T. Teipen, Corporal Lawrence N. Teipen and Pfc. Clarence Teipen are sons of Mr. And Mrs. Joseph F. Teipen, 2860 South Meridian Street. Now serving overseas, Charles entered the army March 11, 1942. Lawrence is at the Missouri Aircraft Institute in Kansas City, Mo., and Clarence is stationed at Stinson field, Texas. Before entering service, all three were employed by the Goodyear Aircraft Corporation, Akron, O.

BY CLARENCE F. TEIPEN The WWII occupation of the following 2, if not 3, Tiepen boys, I think was determined by much prayer by Mom and family, resulting in the action related below by the grace of God. (Joe was in war work, married with 2 children.)

My second oldest brother Charles being older, was called to the service, drafted in March 1942. Having had some years of Food Service background in the store (grocery owned by he, brother Joseph and Mom and Dad. They sent him to cook and bakers school and within 3 months he was in England. He was drafted on his birthday March 11, 1942 at 26 years old. He crossed the Atlantic on the Queen Mary so was safe from the German "U" boats. Much much tonnage of Allied ships and war supplies was sunk those early years of the war. I was able to visit him at his base once or twice near Bury St. Edmunds air base. It was a B17 bomber base flying into Germany every day on daylight raids. He became Mess Sergeant for the base, the bomber crews, also the British Flying Sergeants. He was in England 4 years and wanted me to join his group. He might have had enough rank to pull it off but I said "no thanks Chuck, I'm going to France". He was in the 8th Air force, I in the 9th (his outfit was heavy bombardment) mine Fighters and Fighter-bombers. (Charles visited me in England also). The following October, 1942, Lawrence received his notice to report or as we called them "Greetings" you have been chosen (by your friends down at the local draft board.) My mother was very wise and feared all her boys having to go into the Army. She prepared us by sending us to Airplane Construction School in Nashville, Tenn., hoping we would get high enough up in the aircraft mfg.. Plant in Akron, Ohio that we would be deferred and not have to go to war. Well, Lawrence was a supervisor and personnel at Goodyear called Hershey in Washington to try to get him deferred but they would not allow it. I got my papers the next Monday after taking Lawrence to the train for Indianapolis. When we left Goodyear Aircraft (manufactured B-26 medium bombers) we were questioned much by F.B.I. Or some agents, as we were not allowed to change jobs due to government rules. I had written to the draft board and knew approx. when we would be called up. So to avoid being drafted we got a release from the draft board so we were then free to enlist. We did enlist in the troop carrier command and were sent together to Ft. Benjamin Harrison in Indy. We did not request being kept together, so Lawrence was sent to Engine Mechanics school and I was sent to Aircraft Sheet Metal school in downtown Los Angeles, California. Best deal I ever had in the U.S Army Air Force. Mom's wise decision, gave us much needed background in aircraft construction and repair. Lawrence never was sent overseas, he became a B-17 engine mechanic in the states. I think if you screwed up you were sent overseas however he was a very good baseball pitcher and told of flying in B-17's to the baseball games. I think he was in the service 3 year plus. I enjoyed my work in sheet metal patching flack damaged fighters and Medium Bombers and doing much modification to improve our aircraft such as adding brackets for belly and wing fuel tanks which allowed the fighters to go all the way to Berlin and to deep penetrating raids finally knocking out all Germany's ability to wage war and we won the air supremacy needed to keep us on the beaches at Normandy and in general defeating the enemy, Thank God. I was in the serviced 3 years, Oct. 1942 -Oct. 1945

HENRY TEIPEN 2 O1996

997 JOHANNA MARGUERITE TEIPEN

On August 21, 1985 Aunt Marg talked to Rosemary and Deloris about family affairs. She said Anthony & Henrietta had 2 farms in Tampico, side by side. One was 240 acres, the other 80 acres. Joe Teipen 991 was on one farm and Tony Teipen 996 was on the other. She said all property on Bakemeyer was sold, except the double at 131-133, to buy the farms. Aunt Marg was 13 years old and in the 7th grade when they moved to the farm and she was 17 when she married Uncle Norris Cunningham. She said Grandma Henrietta was on the farm but Grandpa Anthony stayed in Indianapolis to work. The farms were lost after Aunt Marg married. Joe went to the Smart farm and lost it. Uncle Tony later bought a farm of his own. Uncle Henry Teipen 990 and his wife Frances lived on the farm a while, but she didn't like it, so they didn't stay. Aunt Marg said her sister Anna Teipen 992 died at age 5 1/2 years and she had bad croup. We later learned Anna died at 11 months of age of diphtheria. Aunt Marg said she remembered Bernard Hermann Teipens 936 wife, Mary Fleitz Teipen helping Grandma stuff guts when they butchered. Bernard Hermann came to USA around 1875. His father Bernhard Hermann 924, born 1809, was a brother to our Anthony Teipens 944, father Gerardus Hermanus 928, born 1816 Aunt Marg said she was 6 years old when her parents Anthony and Henrietta went to Germany.

THE BURNS FAMILY - 1917

LtoR: Robert Charles 1065(982), Mary Elizabeth 989(940), Leona Orena 1063(980), Arlie Absalom Burns, Richard Henry 1064(981).

Sometime in 1917, Arlie Burns moved his family from Indianapolis, Indiana to Piqua, Ohio. Arlie had been involved in some way with his wife Mary's brother Joseph Teipen 991(942) in a grocery store operation. We don't know why they moved but Piqua, Ohio was the home of Arlie's father, brother and sister. Arlie was known as "William" in Indianapolis.

According to Dick & Bob Burns, the Burns family moved in with Arlie's brother Walter Burns when they arrived in Piqua and lived with them until Arlie and Mary purchased the house at 919 Madison Ave. which is still in the Burns family and presently occupied by Richard Charles "Rick" Burns 1243(1077).

The above photo was taken by Walter Burns at his home in Piqua. Walter was the brother of Arlie Burns and the first of 3 photographers in the family.

Jeffryes plays parents' piano at home

Jeffryes' future is his music

By MALE HILDEBRAND
Troy News Staff Writer

TROY — When Jai Jeffryes receives his degree in May from Arizona State University, he will be like other college graduates seeking employment for which he is qualified.

Unlike most of his peers, Jai pronounced Jai has been preparing for his career since the age of five, when he began piano lessons with his father, James.

Young Jeffryes, a piano performance major whose talents won him a full scholarship at Arizona, also has something special to look forward to in the 1983-84 concert season.

As the winner of the Johanna Hedges Piano Competition in Palm Desert, California last April, he will be spotlighted in a solo recital, his professional debut, at the Ambassador Auditorium in Los Angeles. The exact date for the Young Artist Series presentation is unknown, but Jeffryes thinks it will be early in 1984.

This past week Jai appeared in a public program sponsored by the Musicians' Club of Troy for several performers. He was the recipient of a scholarship from the organization when he graduated from Troy High School.

The young artist recalls that his introduction to music lessons from his father, who is an elementary music teacher in Covington schools and a member of the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra, did not last too long.

He went on to study with Barbara and Audley Wasson of Dayton and while in high school won performance privileges with the Dayton Philharmonic and the Columbus Symphony. As a senior he came out tops in the competition sponsored by the Music Teachers National Association and played with the Seattle Youth Symphony.

The last two summers he earned scholarships from the Chautauqui, N.Y., Music Festival.

While music is foremost in his life, Jai is not sure what course it will take.

"Professionally my aspirations are undefined," he says. "I'm merely trying to become the best pianist I can with my capabilities. After graduation, I'll be looking for work and preparing for the recital."

Jeffryes has another skill to fall back on, temporarily he hopes.

"I've been taking computer science as a minor and I have a year and a half of engineering math so I'm hoping for some menial computer job to support me until I figure a way to earn money for my master's," he says.

With his background of doing the young pianist also "hopes offer me a scholarship for grad Jeffryes' interest in music variety outside classical. I don't of music as more artistic than I enjoy better than others. The jazz and pop I like and a lot classical, the avant garde. But all music except one, I guess Beethoven." de. But if I had to except one, I guess that would

That composer's Sonata, Opus among the works Jai performing debut. There also will be some kofiev with other selections yet

Jai, who was named for a spent his Christmas vacation James and Ruth and his brother Jeffryes home, 1349 Fleet Road to Arizona this coming week studies there with James Rucco

The next months will be busy, will speed by and he will be on ready to learn what West Coast critics think of his debut.

Sign painter retires

Colorful career ends

By SUSAN J. CLARK

Call Staff Writer

Sign painter Dick Burns, 1107 Lake St., is retiring after 48 years of painting everything from tire covers and trucks to theater posters and slickers.

Apprenticed in Piqua, Burns worked for the Schine Theaters here and in Watertown, N.Y., before opening his shop at 329½ N. Main St. in 1948.

He said his career began when he was 16 years old.

"Back then they had tires on the backs of cars, and I used to letter the covers," he explained. "It was also popular to have stuff painted on your rain slicker - the more the better. Painted locks on the pockets were all the go."

Following his apprenticeship, Burns painted advertisements for the Schine Theater in Piqua and was later transferred to New York where he designed displays for four theaters.

"This was during the depression, and I was making $60 a week - $20 more than the theater manager in Syracuse,".

Burns said.

While in New York, he says he met actors Charles Laughton and Roger Pryor, actress Ann Southern and dancer Sally Rand, who appeared at the theaters.

With photography as a hobby, Burns did retouching and corrective retouching on the side.

"SOME PEOPLE WANTED teeth added to their pictures or noses and ears made smaller. In some cases, I had to completely chip away the emulsion on the photographic paper," he said.

After 10 years in Watertown, Burns returned to Piqua and opened his Main Street sign painting shop, where he has been painting not only signs, but trucks and billboards. He also does the silk screen insignias for the Piqua Police cars.

"I do some decals for them about every month. They're always banging up car doors," he said.

Burns said he intends to close the shop as soon as he can. Post-retirement plans include taking care of his grandson who is three years old and also likes sign painting and painting his house. After all that is accomplished, he and his wife plan to travel.

"San Francisco is first on our list, followed by New Orleans. In all the years we lived in New York, we never saw New York city. So we plan to go there," Burns said. "I'd also like to spend some more time exploring the art museum in Chicago."

He says he probably will do some sign painting after retirement, but nothing steady.

"I want to get out of it before I start going downhill," Burns, 64, said.

Burns explained why no one is taking over his business.

"SIGN WRITING TAKES three to five years to learn before you can demand money for your work, and today young people need jobs where they can earn money right away," he said. "This time disadvantage worked to my advantage, though, during the depression because I didn't have anything else to do. You couldn't buy a job then."

Burns says he also would like to practice his organ more after retirement.

"Right now I'm known as Piqua's worst organist," he confided, "and I'd like to try to change my status."

MISS ROSALIE BURNS OF PIQUA TYPES FROM TAPE RECORDER Wins Praise, Has Been on Job Since August.—Staff Photo by Paul Horn

INSPIRATION

Blind Typist Points The Way

By ROY GINGER, Daily News Staff Writer
Rosalie Burns of Piqua has a strong conviction that every person has the right to prove himself—particularly when it comes to performance for one's employer.

Following an eight-week typing course plus some special training, the 21-year-old miss is working as a transcription typist for the Division of Aid for the Aged in the Ohio department of Public Welfare.

Her work since August has favorably impressed co-workers and drew this comment from H. Ross F. Kettering, subdivision manager:

"In the performance of her duties, she is exceptionally good in every phase of work, including neatness and accuracy. We're very satisfied with her work."

The compliment provides special satisfaction to Rosalie because she is blind.

DESPITE HER HANDICAP, she has proved that the blind can work efficiently and well.

Rosalie uses a small tape recorder on which the case worker dictates material. Rosalie, in turn, types the information onto individual client records.

Many case workers, however, prefer to give Rosalie the case material verbally.

She is a student graduate of the Services for the Blind's rehabilitation program. Two of the staff members, Myron Bernstein, vocational rehabilitation counselor, and Paul DeSarno, employment counselor, aided her in getting the job.

Last summer the state initiated a two-year experimental project with the local Division of Services for the Blind office.

ALTHOUGH THE BUREAU has a twofold purpose—to rehabilitate the blind person to the highest level of his potential and to place him in his most qualified trade or vocation—the emphasis has been on the latter.

Thus far, Rosalie is the bureau's star pupil. Her success in achieving self-sufficiency has generated high hopes among the bureau's staff workers.

Speaking from experience, she said:

"Many times the handicapped person can prove he is capable of holding a particular job, but is not hired because of the employer's doubt of mind. I hope what success I achieve here will bring more employment for the handicapped."
